

DCD (SP03)

From: "Sanford, James" <j_sanford@deq.state.la.us>
To: "Thomas O'Brien" <TJO@nrc.gov>
Date: Mon, Nov 29, 1999 9:06 AM
Subject: RE: Clarification of Response to SP-99-074

the answer to question 43 should be Reg Guide 1.86.

> -----Original Message-----

> From: Thomas O'Brien [SMTP:TJO@nrc.gov]
 > Sent: Wednesday, November 24, 1999 10:59 AM
 > To: j_sanford@deq.state.la.us
 > Subject: Clarification of Response to SP-99-074

> Jim-

> As we discussed, I have excerpted your responses to SP-99-074 below.
 > Please clarify if the criteria in Reg Guide 1.86 and the exempt > concentration/quantity tables are used for the release of solid material.
 > Also, if the exempt concentration/quantity table criteria are used for the > release of solid material, how are they applied and is there any > associated dose criteria?

> Feel free to call if you have any questions.

> Thank you,

> LA Responses:

> 42. We have no definitions for effluent, transfer, and release limits.
 > Our definitions for waste, disposal,
 > and byproduct material are identical to the NRC definitions.

> 43. The only criteria we have for the release of solid material are > the > exempt concentration and exempt
 > quantity tables, which are identical to the NRC.

- > 1. NRC criteria. Reg Guide 1.86
- > 2. Licensing actions and Regulations.
- > 3. MARSSIM
- > 4. Ludlum models 3, 5, 14, 19. and laborarory equipment (Ge-Li > detector
- > 5.N/A
- > 6. None.

> Tom O'Brien
 > Office of State Programs
 > USNRC
 > 301-415-2308
 > tjo@nrc.gov

11-29-99

8p
 NRC NRC CENTER COPY
 SP-A-4
 SP-A6-12