Subject: GE Limited Copyright License

Document Identified as Containing GE Confidential or Proprietary Information

For documents submitted by GE and which are identified by a legend, marking or stamp as containing GE confidential or proprietary information, GE hereby grants the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) a limited license under GE's copyrights to make the number of copies of such documents as are necessary for the NRC's internal use.

Documents Not Marked as Being Confidential or Proprietary Information of GE

For documents submitted by GE which are not as set forth above, GE hereby grants the NRC a limited license under GE's copyrights to make the number of copies of such documents as are necessary for the NRC's internal use and to fulfill its legal responsibilities as regards public disclosure.

The limited copy rights licenses granted above cover the following type of documents: General information transmittals, generic or plant-specific reviews or approvals, or the issuance, denial, amendment, transfer, renewal, modification, suspension, revocation, or violation of a license, permit, order, or regulation. The authorization is granted with the understanding that any copies of documents made by the NRC will continue to bear any copyright or confidential or proprietary information notice. No other rights are hereby granted. This limited Copyright License will expire on December 31, 2000.

If you have any questions or comments, please contact Jim Klapproth at (408) 925-5435.

COPYRIGHT LICENSE

The Institute of Nuclear Power Operations (INPO) hereby grants the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) a Copyright License that authorizes NRC to make, for a limited period of time, a reasonable number of copies of copyrighted documents that are currently or that may become in the possession of the NRC. Such copying would be necessary for NRC internal use and to fulfill its legal responsibilities regarding documents in its Public Document Room. However, this agreement does not amend, modify or change any of the NRC's obligations to INPO regarding the withholding of Proprietary Documents from public disclosure under 10CFR2.790(a)(4). This Copyright License covers generic documents published by INPO bearing a "General Distribution" classification and copyright as well as periodicals published by INPO, such as its Annual Report, The Nuclear Professional magazine, brochures, etc. This authorization is granted with the understanding that any copies of a specific publication made by the NRC will continue to bear INPO's copyright notice, which will be reproduced along with any portion of the publication. This Copyright License and release is retroactive and will expire on December 31, 2000.
