Reference letter. The yearly operating revenues on the GENCO projected income statement are approximately $5 million to $6 million higher than the yearly total generation revenue on the GENCO key assumptions page. In addition to revenues from generation, the yearly operating revenues include non-generation related revenues that GENCO will receive from other sources such as providing laboratory services to other companies and through the sale of steam to commercial consumers.

This additional information is also applicable to the projected income statement for the new generating company contained in Enclosure 7P of the PECO license transfer application dated December 20, 1999.

If you have any questions about this letter, please contact K. A. Ainger at (630) 663-7350.

Respectfully,
