Fitness For Duty Events
Report for Period of July 1, 1999 - December 31, 1999

TEST RESULTS

WCNOC Employees

One Wolf Creek Nuclear Operating Corporation (WCNOC) employee tested positive for cocaine on a random test. Unescorted access was suspended. Unescorted access was reinstated after the individual completed the requirements of 10 CFR 26 and WCNOC procedures. The individual was placed in the Fitness-for-Duty follow-up program.

One WCNOC employee tested positive for alcohol on a for-cause test. The individual's unescorted access will remain suspended pending completion of requirements established from the mandatory evaluation, and until the requirements of 10 CFR 26 and WCNOC procedures are met.

A for-cause test was performed on a WCNOC employee in response to an accusation of drug abuse. The individual's unescorted access was suspended until the results were received. The results were negative, and the individual's unescorted access was reinstated. No further actions were taken.

Contractors

One long-term contractor tested positive for alcohol on a for-cause test. The individual's unescorted access was revoked, and the individual was terminated.

Fitness-For-Duty Program Changes

No changes to the FFD program were implemented.
