On 8/16, between 3:00 and 5:25, someone entered my office [redacted] and stole $110.00 from my wallet. My wallet was in my backpack in my bottom desk drawer. The drawer was not lock. I left the office twice during that time period, a trip to the snack bar around 3:15. I returned around 3:22, and I went to the ladies room, another short visit, where I was back within 5 minutes.
