MEMORANDUM AND ORDER

(Accepting the Army's Motion to Strike as Notice of Withdrawal of Testimony)

On August 23, 2007, the Licensee U.S. Army filed a motion seeking to strike certain portions of its own prefiled direct testimony.<sup>1</sup> The following day, Intervenor Save the Valley filed a response to the motion.<sup>2</sup>

Motions to strike are not required in order to withdraw portions of a party's own previously submitted testimony. Instead, when a party seeks to withdraw such testimony, it need only supply notice of the withdrawal. In the circumstances, the motion is dismissed as improvident but will be taken as providing the required notice.

It is so ORDERED.
