

CCNPPEISCommentsResource

From: Lance Polya [lancepolya@alum.dartmouth.org]
Sent: Wednesday, April 09, 2008 8:17 AM
To: CalvertCliffsCOLAEIS Resource
Subject: Comments on the EIS Scoping Process

The Environmental Impact Statements (EIS) should fully address the potential consequences of permanent storage of high-level radioactive waste. Because there is no permanent storage facility for high-level radioactive waste, and it appears increasingly unlikely that there will be one during the lifetime of a new generation of reactors, the EIS should address how and where all of the high-level radioactive waste will be stored.

Thank you for your consideration.

Lance Polya
46 Fields Lane
Jericho, VT 05465

Federal Register Notice: 73FR8719
Comment Number: 130

Mail Envelope Properties (13755406.1207743442261.JavaMail.root)

Subject: Comments on the EIS Scoping Process
Sent Date: 4/9/2008 8:17:22 AM
Received Date: 4/9/2008 8:17:43 AM
From: Lance Polya

Created By: lancepolya@alum.dartmouth.org

Recipients:
"CalvertCliffsCOLAEIS Resource" <CalvertCliffs.Resource@nrc.gov>
Tracking Status: None

Post Office: web2.mcl.wiredforchange.com

Files	Size	Date & Time
MESSAGE	522	4/9/2008 8:17:43 AM

Options
Priority: Standard
Return Notification: No
Reply Requested: No
Sensitivity: Normal
Expiration Date:
Recipients Received: