Subject: J&L Testing Inc. final gauge disposition

(NOTE: This will be used as the Documents Title in ADAMS)

Summary: J&L Testing Company's license was revoked on April 10, 1998. No records were available regarding the final disposition of J&L Testing Company's final gauge disposition. The NRC's position, following the telephone conversations below, is that the gauges were most likely transferred from J&L Testing Company to Jeff Zell Consultants in 1998. The licensees are not required to maintain these records for greater than three years. Therefore, the lack of transfer records is not a violation.

March 26, 2008

Mr. Reichard contacted Ms. Boschuk to inquire as to the final disposition of J&L Testing Company's portable gauges. Ms. Boschuk stated that the gauges were transferred to Jeff Zell Consultants. Ms. Boschuk stated that J&L Testing Company no longer has any portable gauge records, because gauge use ceased approximately ten years ago.

Mr. Reichard contacted Mr. Gross of Jeff Zell Consultants. Mr. Reichard asked if Jeff Zell Consultants could confirm that they had received J&L Testing Company's portable gauges. Mr. Gross said that he could not immediately confirm this, but would try to reference Jeff Zell's records to determine if such a transfer had taken place.

March 31, 2008

Mr. Reichard contacted Mr. Gross. Mr. Gross stated that Jeff Zell didn't have records going back as far as 1998. Therefore, Jeff Zell could neither confirm nor deny taking possession of J&L Testing Company's portable gauges.
