Hello Roberto,
Happy Holidays

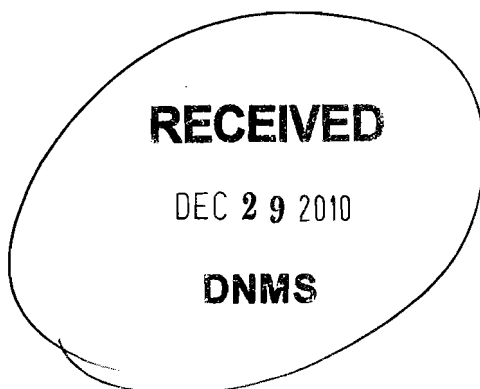

Well sir it's almost been 24 months since I have had a gauge in my possession. I don't foresee owning one in the near future so I guess I had better close my license. However if it is possible to temporarily suspend a license I would like to use that option. Is this possible? I might like to try business on my own again in the next few years.

I have attached some forms for you review and further instruction in case this option is not available.

Also please be advised that I am moving to another Island at this time.

PO Box 1455
Kapaa, HI, 96746

Thank you sir
