Cheryl,

This email is in response to your voice mail from Monday. I'm sorry it's taken me a week to reply.

I would still like to meet with you at some point in the future if you have time. There is no urgency to this.

(b)(7)(C) answered my questions. The only reason for meeting with you would be to keep you abreast of my concerns since an OI investigation was involved in the concerns.

Thirty minutes should do, whenever there is a convenient time for you.

Is there someone in your office I should contact to get on your calendar?

Larry

(b)(7)(C)

I'll see you at 1:30. The issue I want to discuss with you involves Allegations RIV-2007-A-0028, RIV-2007-A-0096, RIV-2009-A-0036, OI Case 4-2007-049 (there was also a Region 4 OI assist from 2009 – I don't know the number but it was associated with either allegation RIV-2007-A-0096 or RIV-2009-A-0036).

Nothing I have to tell you today is a new allegation. You are welcome to treat it as an allegation if you feel you must, but please consider the scope of the earlier allegations before entering something new. Submitting these issues to Region IV to investigate for a fourth time is likely not beneficial.

I don't expect you to review these allegations before our meeting. I just wanted to let you know that my concerns have already been entered as allegations and what those allegation numbers were.

Thanks for taking the time to meet with me,

Larry

Is there 30 minutes when I can meet with you today or next week? Sometime beyond next week is fine too if the coming week is too busy.

Thanks,
Larry

Do you have an "Open Door Policy"? If possible, I would like to meet with you for 30 minutes either this week or next.

It concerns an event which occurred in Region IV in 2003 but was investigated in 2008. Please let me know whom I should contact to get on your calendar.

Thanks,

Larry
