Dear Mr. Barker:

The Regional Assistance Committee has completed the review of the updated Illinois Plan for Radiological Accidents (IPRA) – Quad Cities, Volume IV, dated 12/12, site specific to the Quad Cities Station. A line in the left margin indicates all changes made since the 11/10 update.

The following changes were made since the draft plan was submitted for review:

- Notification and Resources lists will be maintained by the counties and have been removed from the plan
- Cordova Police Department has been removed from the plan; procedures have been taken over by the Rock Island Sheriff's Department Representative and Village President
- Typo with dose limit in Chapter 2, Section O.2 corrected to say >25 instead of <25 for life-saving, voluntary dose limit for radiation exposure
- Sheltering Profiles have been updated
- Appendix D, shelter Hawthorne-Irving School name changed to Rock Island Academy
- TAC Guide language corrected
- Updated Rock Island County Radio Communications Network Table
- Updated Cordova Agency Responsibility Matrix
- Added step to Rock Island County Sheriff's procedure to dispatch deputies to Port Byron and Cordova EOCs as necessary

The Concept of Operations for the State of Illinois, Rock Island and Whiteside Counties as outlined in the 11/10 IPRA-Quad Cities have not changed.

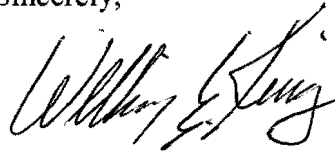

RECEIVED FEB 06 2013

Mr. Allan Barker
