PART I.B INFORMATION NOT LOCATED OR WITHHELD FROM DISCLOSURE
No agency records subject to the request have been located. For your information, Congress excluded three discrete categories of law enforcement and national security records from the requirements of the FOIA. See 5 U.S.C. § 552(c) (2006 & Supp. IV (2010). This response is limited to those records that are subject to the requirements of the FOIA. This is a standard notification that is given to all our requesters and should not be taken as an indication that excluded records do, or do not, exist.
Certain information in the requested records is being withheld from disclosure pursuant to the exemptions described in and for the reasons stated in Part II.
This determination may be appealed within 30 days by writing to the FOIA/PA Officer, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commiss Washington, DC 20555-0001. Clearly state on the envelope and in the letter that it is a "FOIA/PA Appeal."	✓ This determination may be appealed within 30 days by writing to the FOIA/PA Officer, U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission, Washington, DC 20555-0001. BU	APPENDICES Records subject to the request that are described in the enclosed Appendices are being withheld in their entirety or in part under the Exemption 1: The withheld information is properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 12958.
	Exemption 2: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC.
	Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated.
	Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data (42 U.S.C. 2161-2165).
	Section 147 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Unclassified Safeguards Information (42 U.S.C. 2167).
	41 U.S.C., Section 4702(b). prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
	Exemption	4: The with	neld information is a trade secret	or commercial o	or financial inf	ormation that is be	ing withheld for t	he reaso	n(s) indicated.
	The	information is	considered to be confidential bus	siness (proprieta	ary) informatio	on.
	The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control and accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1).
	The information was submitted by a foreign source and received in confidence pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(2).
			rm an identifiable private or gover
	Exemption 5: The withheld information consists of interagency or intraagency records that are not available through discovery during litigation. Applicable privileges:
	Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency.
	Atto	rney work-pro	duct privilege. (Documents prepa	ared by an attor	ney in conten	nplation of litigation	n)
Į	Atto	ney-client pri	vilege. (Confidential communicati	ions between ar	n attorney and	d his/her client)
Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
 (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of NRC requirements from investigators).
 (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. (D) The information consists of names of individuals and other information the disclosure of which could reasonably be expected to reveal
(E) Disclosure would reveal techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or guidelines that could re () re	asonably be a	expected to risk circumvention of t	the law.		•		mes mai	coulu
(F) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of an individual.

				.B DENYIN
Pursuant to 10 CFR 9.25(g), 9.25(h), and/or 9.65(b) of the U.S. Nuclear Regulatory Commission regulations, it has been determined that the information withheld is exempt from production or disclosure, and that its production or disclosure is contrary to the public interest. The person responsible for the denial are those officials identified below as denying officials and the FOIA/PA Officer for any denials that may be appealed to the Executive Director for Operations (EDO).
