PART II.A APPLICABLE EXEMPTIONS
APPENDICES CH Exemption No.(s) of the PA and/or the FOIA as indicated below (5 U.S.C. 552a and/or 5 U.S.C. 552(b)).
Exemption 1: The withheld information is properly classified pursuant to Executive Order 12958.
	Exemption 2: The withheld information relates solely to the internal personnel rules and practices of NRC.
	Exemption 3: The withheld information is specifically exempted from public disclosure by statute indicated.
	Sections 141-145 of the Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosure of Restricted Data or Formerly Restricted Data (42 U.S.C. 2161-2165).
	Section 147	7 of the	Atomic Energy Act, which prohibits the disclosu	re of Unclassified Safeguards li	nformation (42 U.S	S.C. 2167).
	41 U.S.C., Section 4702(b), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
\checkmark	Exemption 4: Th	he with	neld information is a trade secret or commercial	or financial information that is b	eing withheld for the	he reason(s)	indicated.

	Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency.

	Attorney-cli	lient priv	rilege. (Confidential communications between a	n attorney and his/her client)
	Exemption 6: The withheld information is exempted from public disclosure because its disclosure would result in a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. Exemption 7: The withheld information consists of records compiled for law enforcement purposes and is being withheld for the reason(s) indicated. (A) Disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with an enforcement proceeding (e.g., it would reveal the scope, direction, and focus of enforcement efforts, and thus could possibly allow recipients to take action to shield potential wrong doing or a violation of NRC requirements from investigators). (C) Disclosure could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy.
