	41 U.S.C., Section 4702(b), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
			held information is a trade secret or commercial	or financial information that is be	ing withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
	The i	nformation is	considered to be confidential business (propriet	ary) information.
	The information is considered to be connectival business (proprietary) information. The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control and accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1).
	The i	nformation w	as submitted by a foreign source and received in	confidence pursuant to 10 CFF	R 2.390(d)(2).

Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency.
