agency to any per	41 U.S.C., Section 4702(b), prohibits the disclosure of contractor proposals in the possession and control of an executive agency to any person under section 552 of Title 5, U.S.C. (the FOIA), except when incorporated into the contract between the agency and the submitter of the proposal.
Exemption 4: The with	neld information is a trade secret or commercial o	r financial information that is be	ing withheld for the reason(s) indicated.
	considered to be confidential business (proprieta	ry) information.
	The information is considered to be proprietary because it concerns a licensee's or applicant's physical protection or material control and accounting program for special nuclear material pursuant to 10 CFR 2.390(d)(1).
The information w	as submitted by a foreign source and received in	confidence pursuant to 10 CFF	2.390(d)(2).
Disclosure will ha	rm an identifiable private or governmental interes	t.
	neld information consists of interagency or intraac e privileges:	gency records that are not avail	able through discovery during litigation.
Deliberative process: Disclosure of predecisional information would tend to inhibit the open and frank exchange of ideas essential to the deliberative process. Where records are withheld in their entirety, the facts are inextricably intertwined with the predecisional information. There also are no reasonably segregable factual portions because the release of the facts would permit an indirect inquiry into the predecisional process of the agency.
Attorney work-pro	duct privilege. (Documents prepared by an attor	ney in contemplation of litigation	1)
Attorney-client priv	vilege. (Confidential communications between ar	attorney and his/her client)
