

Enclosure 2

Renewal of Fluke Electronics Corporation Exempt-Distribution License No. 34-25957-03E

Information Needed for Withholding Proprietary Information from Public View

Your renewal application includes two drawings which contain the following statement: "This document contains information proprietary to the Fluke Corporation...." Please note that in order to request that NRC withhold information contained in an application from public disclosure, the applicant must submit the information and application, including an affidavit, in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390. The applicant should submit all of the following information:

Please be aware that you may request that certain portions of your submittal to NRC be withheld from public disclosure as proprietary information. To do this, you must execute an affidavit as specified in 10 CFR 2.390. You must list all portions that you wish to be held proprietary, along with your reasoning as to why that is appropriate. While it is allowable, please refrain from submitting proprietary information in support of a license unless necessary. Keep in mind that all NRC licenses are considered to be in the public domain, and therefore may be viewed by any member of the public who requests to see them.

In order to request that NRC withhold information contained in an application from public disclosure, the applicant must submit the information and application, including an affidavit, in accordance with 10 CFR 2.390. The applicant should submit all of the following:

- A proprietary copy of the information. Brackets should be placed around the material considered to be proprietary. This copy should be marked as proprietary.
- A non-proprietary copy of the information. Applicants should white out or black out the proprietary portions (i.e., those in the brackets), leaving the non-proprietary portions intact. This copy should not be marked as proprietary.
- An affidavit that:
 - Is notarized.
 - Clearly identifies (such as by name or title and date) the document to be withheld.
 - Clearly identifies the position of the person executing the affidavit. This person must be an officer or upper-level management official who has been delegated the function of reviewing the information sought to be withheld and who has been authorized to apply for withholding on behalf of the company.
 - States that the company submitting the information is the owner of the information or is required, by agreement with the owner of the information, to treat the information as proprietary.
 - Provides a rational basis for holding the information in confidence.
 - Fully addresses the following issues:

- Is the information submitted to and received by NRC in confidence? Provide details.
- To the best of the applicant's knowledge, is the information currently available in public sources?
- Does the applicant customarily treat this information, or this type of information, as confidential? Explain why.
- Would public disclosure of the information be likely to cause substantial harm to the competitive position of the applicant: If so, explain why in detail. The explanation should include the value of the information to your company, the amount of effort or money expended in developing the information, and the ease or difficulty of others to acquire the information.
