RE: Consumers Power Company - Midland Proceedings.

Gentlemen:

Pursuant to the Board's order of December 14, 1976,
I am attaching the following documents:

1. A list of the privileged documents which were removed from the files given to the parties at the hearing in the above-referenced proceeding during the week of November 29, 1976;
2. A list of documents which Consumers Power Company believes are encompassed by the attorney/client privilege and which are contained in the legal department files relating directly to the Dow-Midland contracts. The review of legal files which may contain additional documents is still underway and should be completed within the next 10 days; and
3. A list of the documents contained in the files of the firm retained by Consumers Power Company to advise them of their rights under the Dow-Consumers Power Company contract which Consumers Power claims fall into the category of attorney/client privileges.

Sincerely yours,

R. Rex Renfrow, III
