MEMORANDUM TO BROKERS

Re: 1) 2020 Advance Premiums

2) 2020 Subscribing Companies

3) Rating Information Forms for 2019

Enclosed are the nuclear liability advance premium packages for the upcoming calendar year. Packages as usual include advance premium endorsements, invoices, and premium computation sheets (negotiated or net commissions where applicable).

As in recent years, the domestic policy advance premiums include changes in Engineering Rating Factors for power reactor insureds; nuclear material inventories for fuel cycle insureds; and nuclear sales or receipts for domestic and foreign S&T insureds.

The 2020 Subscribing Companies Endorsements are also enclosed for each of your respective clients, as follows:

Domestic Facility, S&T and Foreign S&T Forms – These endorsements are issued with respect to all ANI Domestic Facility Form, S&T and Foreign S&T policies reflecting the participating Subscribing Companies and their percentages for Calendar Year 2020.

Secondary Financial Protection (SFP) Policy and Facility Worker Form Policy – If your clients are participating in the SFP program and/or Master Worker program, enclosed are two copies of Endorsement No. 68 which has been attached to the SFP Master Policy and/or two copies of Endorsement No. 33 which has been attached to the Master Worker Policy. One copy of each endorsement is to be forwarded to the insured for their records and the broker copy is to be retained for your records. The original endorsement to the SFP Master Policy will be sent directly to the Nuclear Regulatory Commission (NRC) because they are custodian of such policy. A copy of the endorsement to the Master Worker Policy, which is in the custody of ANI, will also be sent to the NRC.

Lastly, enclosed are the appropriate Rating Information Forms (if applicable) for your clients. These forms are to be completed by the insured and returned to ANI by April 1st. Your clients should provide their actual closing figures for their calendar or fiscal year 2019. We are not looking for estimates for 2020. The forms are required for both domestic and foreign S&Ts on an annual basis. These audit forms are essential in order to price the exposure presented by the insured's activities. Failure to comply will result in a 10% or higher penalty added to the insured's Advance Premium for 2021.

Please send the completed form(s) to Melody Palmer. If you elect to send it electronically, please e-mail it to her at: mpalmer@amnucins.com.

Please note the payment instructions on each invoice. Premiums are payable to ANI by March 1st. For those of you who must do security checks on our subscribing members, please note that our subscribers are licensed to write business in all fifty states and in the District of Columbia. Membership in ANI requires, in part, that a company maintain an A.M. Best rating of at least A-and policyholder surplus of at least $100 million. Although some subscribers might change from year-to-year, rest assured that all subscribers satisfy the requirements described. Just for your information, there are no changes to the subscribers for 2020, however all of their percentage shares have changed slightly compared to 2019.

Please let us know if you have any questions or comments. You can direct both to the underwriter whose name is on each premium computation sheet. We at ANI want to wish you and your clients a very happy holiday season.
