The Commission has approved the publication of the Federal Register notice denying, without prejudice, both PRM-26-3 and PRM-26-5, and has approved the letters informing the petitioners of this action, subject to the enclosed edits.

There was a prolonged gap between the Commission's termination of the rulemaking in 2015 and the staff's recommendation in this paper of Commission approval of this necessary procedural consequence of the prior termination. The staff should examine its internal procedures for any needed corrective actions to prevent similar gaps or lack of tracking.
